The Court amends the Superseding Order Regarding Service and Filing in Subproceeding C-125-B on and by All Parties (ECF 2100) (Superseding Service Order). The Court amends the Superseding Service Order to specify how this Court will serve parties to this case. The paragraphs below will be inserted into the Superseding Service Order as specified.

1. At page 10, paragraph 19 of the Superseding Service Order under the heading Service of Motions, Papers and Documents Filed with the Court, the following concluding sentences will be inserted:

In resolving any motion for which postcard notice was provided, the Court shall issue and serve its order through the CM/ECF System, by posting its order to the website established in paragraphs 1 and 2, above, and by sending postcard notice (or, at the Court's discretion, by sending a copy of its order to those on the postcard notice list). The Court will also follow this service procedure for any order (or notice) issued unsolicited by a motion.

2. At page 11, paragraph 20 of the Superseding Service Order under the heading Filings

For Which Postcard Service Not Required, the following concluding sentences will be inserted:

In resolving any motion for which postcard notice was not required, the Court shall issue and serve its order through the CM/ECF System, and by posting its order to the website established in paragraphs 1 and 2, above. If the motion for which postcard notice was not required concerns an Unrepresented Party who has requested postcard service, the Court will mail a copy of its order directly to the affected Unrepresented Party.

Finally, as stated in the Superseding Service, those parties (i.e., Non-Appearing Parties and Unrepresented Parties) who have taken no action concerning service (i.e., identifying whether they wish to receive postcard or electronic service) (Superseding Service Order at page 9, paragraph 15) or who have changed their mailing/email addresses without informing the Court (Superseding Service Order at page 12, paragraphs 25 and 27) shall continue to receive service and notice of all filings in this case through the public website identified at page 5, paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Superseding Service Order.
